

Crosspointe Consulting talks conversion from Timeslips to TimeSolv

We're not the only ones trumpeting the data migration features we offer, specifically our Timeslips Convertor Tool that allows former Timeslips clients to move ALL their historical data to TimeSolv.

Crosspointe Consulting Group, a consortium of legal tech consultants located in numerous cities around the Eastern seaboard, recently posted a blog asking if the move from Timeslips to TimeSolv was right for their clients. As you can read, their answer is yes if you're a firm looking to move to a cloud-based system.
