

How TimeSolv can work for your PR firm

In the high-stakes, 24/7 world of public relations, PR professionals are often working all kinds of unconventional hours from all locations – the office, home, airports, and even while commuting – and their primary structure for getting paid is through billable hours. Because PR firms are always on the go to meet their client's needs, time and expense tracking and other back-office administrative tasks can get lost in the shuffle. Ironically, the same clients whose work is being prioritized at the expense of proper time tracking and invoicing can balk when they receive bills that seem incomplete or unpolished. But with TimeSolv's time tracking software, PR professionals can get an easy-to-use, low-cost invoicing solution which reduces tensions with clients and gets bills paid on time.

Time Tracking From Any Location

TimeSolv's time tracking software not only gives your PR firm the comprehensive yet easy-to-use time tracking options enjoyed by law firms, but it makes it easy for you and your employees to input your time from any location at any time. Whether or not you are online, you can input time and/or expenses into any desktop, laptop, tablet, or smartphone with the TimeSolv app. Thus, you never have to try to remember what your hours were long after the fact, reducing vague and incomplete time entries.

Reporting and Project Management Features for Your PR Firm

Time and expense tracking is only the start of the options offered to PR professionals by TimeSolv. Your firm will also get reporting functions which allow you to run 31 different reports at the touch of a button, including hours and expenses billed per client as well as internal performance reports. In addition, you can increase productivity and communications within your PR business with our extensive project management features.

Improve Your Payment Flow

Of course, the most important aspect of your business is actually getting paid by your clients, and TimeSolv helps PR firms increase their ability to get paid fully and on time with streamlined and automated approval processes and convenient client payment options through our client portal.
