What Is Sage Timeslips?

Sage Timeslips is a desktop-based legal billing solution. The platform offers many customization options and all of the latest billing features. While it has a solid reputation, its desktop-first model poses some limitations as the legal industry shifts toward remote and hybrid work.

Now that you know a little about each platform, let's get into our TimeSolv vs. Sage Timeslips head-to-head comparison.

Comparing TimeSolv and Sage Timeslips: Key Features and Differences

Here are some of the key features and differences you need to consider when deciding between TimeSolv vs. Sage Timeslips:

Accessibility

Accessibility represents one of the most important categories in our TimeSolv vs. Sage Timeslips comparison. After all, what good is a robust software solution if it's hard to access and use?

TimeSolv is a 100% cloud-based platform and syncs across all devices automatically. It also includes a user-friendly mobile app for on-the-go time tracking, which can ensure that your team captures every billable task.

Sage Timeslips, however, is a desktop-based platform. While it offers a mobile tool, Sage Timeslips Go, it's a completely separate product. That means you'll have to add it to your primary subscription, driving up your technology cost.

Pricing

TimeSolv edges out Sage Timeslips in terms of pricing. With TimeSolv, you'll benefit from:

- Transparent, subscription-based pricing
- No hidden fees
- A client portal, trust accounting, and batch billing at no extra cost
- A free trial

By contrast, Sage Timeslips:

- Comes with higher upfront costs
- Limits many features to premium plans
- Requires third-party tools for certain capabilities

Sage Timeslips pricing can be a bit confusing due to all of the add-on tools. By the time you purchase additional licenses to match the tools TimeSolv provides, Sage Timeslips is much more costly.

Client Portal

TimeSolv provides a user-friendly client portal that simplifies the payment process. Once your clients log into the portal, they can make payments and review invoices. This feature improves client satisfaction while speeding up collections. Removing payment barriers protects your cash flow and is key to business continuity.

Sage Timeslips doesn't have a native client portal, meaning you must manage payments through a third-party service. This adds friction to the client journey and can lead to payment delays.

Bill Reminders

Automated bill reminders offer an easy, convenient way to prompt clients to pay their outstanding invoices. TimeSolv includes a bill reminders feature as a standard offering.

Sage Timeslips also has a bill reminder feature, but it's only available in the most expensive plan. Once again, TimeSolv provides better value by including a wider range of standard tools.

Which Platform Is Best for Your Firm?

Now that the dust has settled on our TimeSolv vs. Sage Timeslips comparison, the question is, which platform is the best fit for your practice?

When comparing some capabilities, the matchup is close. However, TimeSolv pulls ahead in a few key areas, including pricing, accessibility, user-friendliness, and overall capabilities.

Sage Timeslips may be a serviceable option if:

- You run a traditional firm that prefers desktop-first applications
- You've already invested heavily in Sage infrastructure
- You're comfortable with manual processes and a steep learning curve

However, TimeSolv is the clear choice if:

- You need flexibility and mobility
- You value cloud-based technology, mobile access, and client-facing tools
- You want a time and billing solution with transparent pricing, plus versatile tools designed to support your legal workflow.

TimeSolv meets the needs of modern law firms that want to work smarter, save time, and simplify critical processes. Get started with TimeSolv and streamline the way you manage your firm.

Make the Right Choice for Your Firm

After comparing TimeSolv vs. Sage Timeslips head-to-head, one solution is the clear winner.

Empower your firm with software that adapts to your workflow, not the other way around. TimeSolv is a time and billing solution that includes essential features like:

- Trust accounting
- Secure document storage
- Integrated client portals
- Automated reminders

These features free up more time for what matters: serving your clients and growing your firm.
